Center for Professional Training, Leadership and Team Development

At Lanier Islands, we believe in the power of strategic partnerships. We understand the vital need to work together to achieve positive change. We are committed to excellence. We have a bold ambition to develop teams, and we are working hard with our partner, lapdog, inc. to ensure success.

Lanier Islands is so excited to introduce lapdog, inc. as our preferred partner for team and leadership development. Lanier Islands and lapdog, inc. share a common vision for team building—to deliver the most impactful initiative(s), in the most relevant way, at the most relevant time. And we are doing this through the development of the Lanier Islands Center for Professional Training, Leadership and Team Development.

At lapdog, our goal is to make your team better at what they do. Period. How do we do it? Our passionate team of professional team development and team building consultants asks probing questions to determine what you need to excel. We then develop a program that simulates real-life events to address both your defined needs and those beyond your immediate perception. This approach allows us to help you institute everyday changes that let your team operate at its best. Whether it is a one time initiative, or a long term team development program, we can provide all the services needed to enhance your team and organization. Experience the lapdog difference for yourself. Allow us to help you identify, refine and succeed!

Advance through Adventure

By combining our unique scenery and an extensive menu of peer-related pursuits, Lanier Islands welcomes the opportunity to act as your catalyst for positive change. Why not trade the “rat race” for a REAL race or “get the ball rolling” with an ACTUAL ball? Rather than merely hosting a seemingly endless string of meetings and break-out sessions, we invite you to BE DIFFERENT at your next event at Lanier Islands. Explore this abbreviated list of just some of our most popular team building offerings and imagine the possibilities they could hold for your company. All activities can be designed to meet the time frame, physicality, and development goals of your group.

GOAL

To identify personal team member style. Understand how to capitalize on style strengths and improve trouble spots. Identify the styles of fellow teammates. Plan how to take full advantage of the team's mix of styles. Realize how one is perceived by team members through peer feedback.

FOCUS

A powerful team building assessment that identifies team members personality style and develops the interpersonal skills needed for effective teamwork.

OVERVIEW

The What's My Team Member Style assessment starts with a 10 minute 18-item inventory. Easy to use and easy to apply, the assessment measures team behavioral styles: direct, spirited, considerate and systematic. Combining the self-assessment with peer perceptions enables individuals to better understand their behavior, learn how to adapt it to improve interpersonal relationships, develop rapport, and, ultimately, become more effective team members.
